

SCHOOL ANTHEM

- 1) The youth who wealth and courts despised
Thine spotless mind above to raise;
Who every rising thought chastised
'Tis Aloysius claims our ways.

Chorus : O gentle and angelic youth
Aloysius pray for us
O gentle and angelic youth, pray for us,
Aloysius, pray for us.

- 2) Angelic youth, O glorious saint,
In cradle God's name ever invoked;
In life his protection provoked
His blessings thou didst share.
- 3) The tenor of your life so bright,
So pure as Angel's purity;
A seraph from the realms of light
Dwelling on earth you seemed to be.
